National Citizen Service Graduation Certificate

August 2019 to Present

This certificate is awarded to the graduates of the NCS campaign. This campaign is a government scheme which enables young people to take part in a 4 week course, in which they learn many important life skills. For example, public speaking, cooking and organisation. During my time on NCS I worked with Bradford City Library as their community partner and organised a campaign to attract more people into the library. This certificate is signed by Theresa May.
