Practical Skills

Huma, you are working well in the session and have grown in confidence within your performance during your time at college, I would now like to see you work on your positivity in your approach to tasks. As you know, the process of audition is really important when it comes to this career path and is an integral part of gaining work and developing as a performer. You have experience in this field, now work on selling your self more and focusing on your positive strengths in order to achieve more opportunities and appeal to more employers. I know that this is not the path you are choosing for your progression path in the future, please make sure that you are preparing accordingly for this, the staff team are here to support you on this so please be sure to talk about this within your scrapbook.

Areas for Development

- Showcase more rehearsal techniques in rehearsals.
- Consider the physicality of your role in regards to status and context of the role.
- Be more positive in the presentation of your work to appeal to more employers, this works in all settings, not just within auditions.
