Comments:

Well done Isaac, you have completed this project to an excellent standard. The work submitted meets all the assessment criteria and is of a very high standard. You have shown your performance and legal management skills throughout this project, combined with a very strong work ethic.

Context - You have provided a strong introduction to your band that clarifies your aims and purpose with clear understanding of the project. You show understanding of context throughout the contracts you created and the rehearsal process.

Research – This was excellent, including research into song analysis to help you learn material and techniques for performing piano in a band. You must also implement research from a wider range of sources and referenced carefully. You must Harvard Reference throughout in future.

Problem Solving – You successfully demonstrated the ability to solve problems as and when required with effective and decisive means. Your job role to create contracts required extensive problem solving though out and enabled you to show your skills in this area.

Planning and Production – Your planning and production skills enabled you to get this demanding project completed on time. You remained organised throughout the whole process – even when under considerable stress. You created a brief project plan to outline your intentions – this could be more detailed in future and include the resources you may need.

Practical Skills – Your performance skills were very good, and you managed to perform in two groups. You demonstrated a professional approach to your legal management role and managed to create and organise professional contracts. You could work to carry out performances as an accompanist for a singer in future.

Evaluation and Reflection – Evaluative and analysis is well written throughout the project and at the end of the project. You could start to think about using a reflective cycle to allow for a more detailed reflection.

Presentation - You have structured and presented your work effectively, showing that you have an eye for organisation. I enjoyed the inclusion of pictures throughout but make sure they are referenced appropriately!

Well done Isaac, your commitment to this project is exemplary and your digitalspace portfolio demonstrates that. You gave a convincing performance with two different bands! Keep up the excellent work!
