Practical Skills

Hirah, you are working very well with the rest of your crew. You have a great level of focus on set. You are able to deliver direction, and take on feedback well to help aid and support in your professional development as the director. I feel you need to believe more in what you want from your actors' story board your shots, in order for the actors to believe and follow your lead.

Areas for Development

1. Remain confident in your work. Come with a plan of action and take the lead.
2. Try to carry out more research around basics of being of being a director on set to support your project
3. Continue to look at attaining your level of focus throughout the session, you can sometimes let this drop.
