Practical Skills: Ellie you have a comprehensive understanding of subject context, which reflects positivity and continuity throughout your practical assignments, Well done. I have to commend your studio practice, as you will endeavour to perfect a skill. Your characters were comprehensively thought out, you are an articulate and becoming a professional in your field. Well done. Your manners and client care are very good, you never forget about your actors and realise that they are human and have feelings, well done. You are consistent in most areas which has reflected throughout semester one and two.

Areas for Development

- Ellie, you are an independent student, and you always put in 100%,you have challenged your thought process and I see you always want to improve, this is one of your strengths, so keep working hard and you will be rewarded.
- Ellie , I can only advise you that the formula for research, practical skills development is working, keep stretching your mind, you are capable of great things, very well done.
