Comments:

Well done Ellis, you have completed this initial assessment to a satisfactory standard. I am please you decided to produce a track for your initial assessment as you wish to specialize in production this year. It was also a good idea to challenge yourself in a style of music you have little experience with. You have also included a screenshot to show your working in a DAW – this is good practice for documentation, although there is little explanation of what is happening in this screenshot or why it has been included. Also, unfortunately your soundcloud link stopped working – please reupload. Your written evaluation is extremely brief and you require much more depth and detail at this level Ellis You must work hard to complete more insightful and critical evaluations to inform your practice this year. I look forward to seeing and hearing your production work!

Please now set yourself three SMART targets to improve after receiving this feedback.
