Candidate Number	10641858
Pathway	Creative media I3 extended
Project Title	The Show must go on!
Section 1: Project Concept and Rationale (approx. 150 words)
My project is a comics called "The Show must go on!" and features 3 main characters and few random background characters. The reason I am doing this is because I enjoy creating characters and storylines. Doing this will enable me to improve my character and storytelling skills, along with helping my project to improve overtime, I want to work on my story telling skills. By doing this I will make a better comic and story that can interest readers and make this story enjoyable. I want to improve my pony anatomy skills. This will help to make my characters look more natural than if I had no or little experience in the topic.
Section 2: A Review of Your Progress and Achievements to Date (approx. 150 words)
I have drawn and designed my characters using procreate while working on my independent studies. I have met deadlines on several occasions while making sure that my work is up to the quality standards required. I have developed designs and worked on storyboards. I have used procreate to draw, color and shade my illustrations for my projects.

Section 3: How the Project Will be Evaluated and Reviewed. (approx. 150 words)

I will do a single evaluation at the end of my project including how I have planned and executed my project, how and why I solved problems the way I did. I will also include how I came up with character designs, the storyline and character personalities.

Evaluation ongoing I will film a screen capture on my iPad, which I will talk through each design.

Proposed Research Sources and Bibliography - Harvard Format (approx. 50 words)

- LGBTQ+communities
- While I am already somewhat knowledgeable about the LGBTQ+ community I will need to do some fact checking to make sure things are correct.
- Concert preparation and event

Due to Calypso being a performer and hosting concerts I will need to have a few references to the concert being prepared in the background of my comic.

- Pony anatomy

I will need to ensure that the anatomy of my characters are correct to avoid them looking wrong or distorted.
