Comments:

Well done Oliver, you have completed this project to a satisfactory standard. The work submitted meets all the assessment criteria and is of a satisfactory standard.

Jazz Performance

Oliver, I know you did not find jazz performance easy, but you really developed as a bassist through studying and performing this set. You worked hard during the rehearsals and your excellent attendance helped with making sure that you played a big part in getting ready for the performance. It was good to see you challenge yourself with a performing in a variety styles, such as blues and bossa nova. You learnt new ways to move from root fifth, along with reading chord progressions and charts. Your blog is well put together and you've included rehearsal footage, with some reflection. The final performance video is included, and you have also reflected on this. You did an excellent job with the final performance, and you should be pleased with how you've applied yourself.

Community Music

Oliver, you have provided little context and research for this aspect, however, you attended an interview for peripatetic work and successfully secured the role. You planned and delivered a series of workshops, receiving good feedback on your performance from Allstar Music. You also worked with Allstar music successfully at events. You worked as a group effectively to ensure the delivery of some good workshops. You have not documented or evaluated this aspect of your project.

Professional Development

You have documented your personal statement, which is excellent, and there is a list of your University choices, but other than that there is very little information here even though you completed a lot of work. There is no C.V. presented, even though I know you have one. You did complete some really interesting projection mapping work and it would have been nice to see you evaluate this aspect in more detail and how you could apply this skill in future.
