Tutor observation; Practical sessions

Practical Skills

Ashley you are working well in practical sessions. You are working well with your peers and are trying to be helpful wherever possible. You offer to take pictures, and share them on teams. You are developing props and working well in practical sessions to offer feedback to support the shows development.

Areas for Development

Try to avoid interrupting staff to speak where possible, and try to develop your professional listening skills. It's great to share ideas and thoughts in the space, but it is important to remember to be respectful of how we are speaking to our peers at all times. When performing try to avoid looking at the audience, or at the staff. Stay focused in the scene and try to live in the moment.
