Tutor observation; Practical sessions

Practical Skills

You are working very well practically. You are a wonderful team player and share your creative ideas. You are supportive of your fellow cast and you have worked hard to create the multiple production elements in sessions, well done Ellie. However, you can be easily distracted by your peers at times. Try to work on maintaining your focus in session, or regaining focus after a distraction. Also, be sure to explore multiple line learning techniques to develop your own line learning skills. This will give you the confidence to develop your character and your vocal projection. Consider exploring multiple vocal projection techniques.

Areas for Development

- Develop line learning techniques. Research multiple ways to learn lines and reflect on your research on your digital space.
- Improve focus in the space to develop your professional practice. Explore focus techniques to regain focus after distractions.
- Explore vocal projection techniques, be sure to reflect on your research and practice on your digital space.
