Comments:

Well done Luke you have completed this project to a good standard. The work submitted meets all of the assessment criteria and is of a high standard.

Your strengths and skills mindmap is very detailed and covers the skills you learnt in each project. You have reflected on your strengths, skills and areas for improvement.

There is a list of potential ideas that you have researched to inform your final decision and you have elaborated on each concept. You could have looked into these ideas further in relation to your skillset and explored why they may or may not work.

You started to research your final idea and included some inspiration for your music. This aspect of this project was good. You could have included a small evaluation of this idea at the end.
