Tutor observation; Practical sessions

Practical Skills

You work well within sessions and share some strong ideas. You offer space to the other students to input their ideas as well. Well done for this. Moving forward, it would be nice to see you push yourself toward a deeper role in FMP. Try to take a risk in going for a role that stretches and challenges your skills.

Areas for Development

- Continue to work on your professional behaviours in the sessions (put your phone away)
- Be sure to push yourself and attempt roles that are challenging you're skills.
