

well as we only had a little amount of time to put the entire thing together.

1. What skills do you feel you have developed throughout this project?

I think I developed my confidence as I put forward more of my ideas to help improve the performance.

2. What were your key strengths in project 3?

I believe my strengths were improvisation and characterisation.

3. What were the weaknesses in project 3?

I need to work on my focus more.

4. How effectively did you manage the overall process?

I learned my lines quickly, create the set and developed my character.

5. Can you discuss any key research sources which have supported your process?

I watched the episode multiple times to analyse my character.

6. How effectively did you apply the research?

I used my research to get into full character so I could portray my character to its full potential and have it spot on.

7. What have you learnt from this project which you will take forward on to the next step of your own personal development?

I learned how to use feedback effectively and I learned production elements.

8. What have you learnt about the topic of tv acting?

Learning multiple roles is a good idea because anyone could be absent.

9. What can you do now that you couldn't do when you started the course?

I learned to work better as a team.

10. Why is learning this important?

Because in the future I will have to work as a team

11. If you were to do the project again what would you do differently?

Id make sure we have understudies so we dont rush and panic if people are off.

12. How will you effectively apply this within your next project?

Learn multiple roles incase things go wrong and people cant partake.

13. Did you enjoy the rehearsal process?

Yes because I learned to work as a team and I spoke to more people then normal and work on production, not just the acting.

14. Set yourself 3 targets for project 3:

1) FOCUS

2) challenge my self more

3) Put forward more ideas

15. Set yourself 3 targets for your scrapbook for project 3:

1) Use less guidance

2) go into more detail instead of being more dependent on others.

3) explain in more detail my ideas.
