Comments:

Usman, you have placed together a very basic CV you need to look at the structure and make sure to add your own photo as well. Your cover letter is basic, yet it sets a foundation for progression in future development. You delivered a good project proposal practically and you worked exceptionally hard during the rehearsal time for your audition planning all your ideas for the effects and lighting. Your proposal demonstrates an understanding of your intentions for your overall project you have evidenced this in support of your overall all future development. Going forward you need to look at setting yourself measurable targets that you can evidence in your work to support your overall process. Keep working hard as your overall focus in the practical sessions is improving on a weekly basis, this will help you when you take part in work experience sessions.

Areas for Development:

- Keep working on developing your production skills and add them to your CV
- Add your own picture to your CV
- Create a small portfolio of your production work as a link on your CV, so future employers can see your skills.
- Add more research content to your work.
