Well done Ethan, you have completed this project to a satisfactory standard. The work submitted meets all the assessment criteria and is of a satisfactory standard. You have shown you are very capable practically in this project and you have glimpses of excellence in your portfolio.

Context - You show understanding of context throughout the rehearsal process and the performance you gave. You also demonstrated context through your stage manager role and creation of the logo. You could provide a brief introduction that clarifies your aims and purpose with some examples from the music industry.

Research – This was sufficient but lacking a detailed and expansive exploration into the subject matter ensuring a broad range of resources have been implemented. You must look to implement research from a wider range of sources and reference carefully in order to reach a higher grade. Problem Solving – You successfully demonstrated the ability to solve problems as and when required with effective and decisive means. Your role as stage manager required problem solving though out and enabled you to show your skills in this area. You should try to develop this within your evaluation to demonstrate further understanding and evaluation of your problem solving skills, it is not about just solving problems but developing your methods and understanding of solving them.

Planning and Production – Your planning and production skills were evident throughout your roles - particularly in rehearsing for your performance. You should make sure you include more evidence of this planning process in future.

Practical Skills – Your performance skills were excellent in your performance, demonstrating your ability as a bassist. You demonstrated a professional approach to the performance at a level expected in a professional performance. You have really developed as a performer over the past year and you are confident on stage.

Evaluation and Reflection – Evaluative and analysis is well written at the end of the project with some reflections throughout the project. You should include more ongoing evaluations in the future.

Presentation - You have structured and presented your work effectively. The presentation of the final show was professional and worked perfectly for the event!
