Tutor observation; Practical sessions

Practical Skills

You are developing well within the session Skye. You are working very well with your peers, especially with a peer you feel uncomfortable with. This is brilliant to see as this is strong development in professional practice. Keep this up. You have worked well in the production session this morning, creating the tea stained papers for Scrooge and then focused your time on developing your movement sections with your peers. Well done for offering to take on the role of 'Girl' and the added lines.

Areas for Development

Be sure to be off script for your roles by Monday and focus on developing the characters. Find a clear physical and vocal separation between the male child and female child roles. Continue to develop your professional skills by collaborating with the MMU team for your hair and make-up, be sure to share your ideas with them for your character.
