

Viva Questions

1. How do you feel this project went? I feel like it went really well because it all came together really well. As a company we worked together to get it done with fantastic results. I was proud of myself when we finished it gave me confidence to carry on and do more. So, when we do our 2nd project I will feel more confident especially the acting and speaking parts.
2. What skills do you feel you have developed throughout this project? Change I think was a hard thing to do it made me stressed out because it was kind of last minute. And also, my acting skills and talking in front of people I feel brave now.
3. What were your key strengths in project 1? I think that dancing was my strength I especially the lifts were fun to do and show what I can do.
4. What were the weaknesses in project 1? Doing the scrapbook has stressed me out this whole time because I wasn't sure how to do it properly. But now I do understand how it works.
5. How effectively did you manage the overall process? I think I stayed calm in lessons and we all made it fun together to make it successful. But the scrapbook I think we helped each other a lot.
6. Can you discuss any key research sources which have support your process? Hallmark website, stand up websites, comedian websites, comedy through the decade's times.
7. How effectively did you apply the research? It helped more about what I was meant to do. Doing and who my client was that I was performing for. It helped me develop and change my character.
8. What have you learnt from this project which you will take forward on to the next step of your own personal development? To be in team and let others take more control of what we are doing next in our next project. Also, I need to be less stressed out.

9. What have you learnt about the topic of devised theatre?

I've learned that devised theatre is very creative and it's a project that people put together on stage. And learn the rules of the theatre and how to act professional. By being in focus and doing the work properly.
