Comments:

Well done Cameron, you have completed this project to a satisfactory standard. The work submitted meets all of the assessment criteria.

You have not provided a mindmap of your strengths and skills from past projects. You could also have completed an evaluation of these strengths, skills and areas for improvement. It might have been useful to suggest how do these skills will affect your project decisions and the way you work?

You have mentioned several interesting project ideas briefly - these could have been expanded greatly! You could have related back to your skillset and explained how you would deal with your strengths and weaknesses throughout your project. You have given some brief detail on a final project idea.
