Comments:

Well done Albert, you have completed this project to a satisfactory standard. The work submitted meets all the assessment criteria and is of a satisfactory standard.

Jazz Performance

Albert, you really developed as a jazz pianist through studying and performing this set. You worked hard during the rehearsals and your excellent attendance helped with making sure that you played a big part in getting ready for the performance. It was good to see you challenge yourself with a variety of scales and improvising in a variety styles, such as blues and bossa nova. You learnt new extended chords, along with new voicings and positions. Your blog includes lots of rehearsal footage and performance videos. There are no reflections on each clip or improvements suggested. There is a brief evaluation of this project. You did an excellent job with the final performance, and you should be pleased with how you've applied yourself.

Community Music Placement

Albert, there are many unfinished sections here and you have provided little context and research for this aspect, however, you attended and contributed to the work placement for Bingley Music Town. David has provided feedback which states you are a confident individual who can problem solve and that you contributed many ideas. You worked as a group effectively to discuss how to develop Bingley Music town. You have not documented or evaluated this aspect of your project.

Professional Development

You have not documented your personal statement, even though this was excellent. We discussed a list of your subject specific and transferable skills, but you have no documented this. There is very little information here even though you completed a lot of work. There is no C.V. presented, even though I know you have one. It would have been nice to see you evaluate this aspect in more detail and how you could apply these skills in your future education or career.
