

Project 4 idea

Make a short film

The short film is called There is always someone there

Short film
follows
themes of bullying and suicide

Main
character is called Rebecca

Rebecca is going through depression
after her dad
passed away

The coloring in my short films is gonna be dark which is going to tie in to the main character mood but in the ending of the film the colors will be more light which symbolises the character at last being happy.

She has a brother called ethan who has got learning difficulties

Ethan is Rebecca's half brother for he was the result of Rebecca's mum and her boss having an affair.

I know someone that does performing arts that is willing to take part in my short film

Rebecca's mum's personality has changed after her husband died for she is strict towards Rebecca and has massive expectations of Rebecca.

I am thinking about having an assistant director that will help me on my short film.
