

Poster analysis

I like these posters because they look beautiful and professional and also they follow the same theme of my short film which is depression. I am going to have the poster of my short film be illustrated by someone who does art and try to have the poster give off more depressing vibes with colors like black and gray and also have the main character's face filled with depression on the front of the poster.

