1 INT. CORRIDOR1

We see a student walking in a corridor looking very tired and is yawning.

2 INT. CLASSROOM2

We then cut to a scene where we see the student trying to concentrate in his lesson but is exhausted.

We then cut to a scene where he is next to a computer trying to write down his work but is extremely exhausted which leads to him putting his head down on the table.

We then cut to a scene where he gets up from his chair and starts making his way out of the classroom but finds some sweets on a table.

The camera zooms on the sweets.

His eyes are wide open.

He intrestingly picks up the sweets and starts to unwrap them.

The camera focuses on the students mouth whilst he is chewing on one of the sweets.

All of a sudden he faces towards the camera and with a smile puts his thumbs up.

3 INT. CORRIDOR3

We see the student walking in the corridor smiling with lots of energy.

4 INT. CLASSROOM4

We then see him concentrating with enough energy to write down all his work in his book.

We then see him writing down all his work on the computer.
